RIGHTS OF INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES

Linden-Kildare CISD and Texarkana College comply with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (P.L. 93- 112) and with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and does not discriminate on the basis of a disability in the operation of its educational programs or in its admission and employment practices. Linden-Kildare CISD and Texarkana College are dedicated to providing the least restrictive learning environment for all students. The school and college promotes equity in academic access through the implementation of reasonable accommodations as required by the Vocational Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title V, Section 504 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) which will enable students with disabilities to participate in and benefit from all post-secondary educational programs and activities. Special emphasis will continue to be placed on correcting conditions which may inadvertently discriminate against any individual with a disability. For further information and assistance, contact the Linden-Kildare High School Counselor or (Texarkana College Students) Dr. Ron Bright in the Counseling and Advising Center at 903-832-5565 ext. 3246.

Cell Phones and other electronic devices:

Per LKCISD and Texarkana College rules, cell phones and beepers must be turned off and not visible in the class unless an emergency situation exists. This situation must be discussed with the instructor prior to class. If a student is caught text-messaging in class, the student will be given a warning for the first offense and dropped from the class after the second offense. If a student's cell phone rings in class, the student will receive a warning and will be dropped from class after the second offense. If a cell phone or other electronic device is visible during an exam, the student will receive a grade of zero on the exam and will not be allowed to make up the exam.

Attendance Policy:

Students need to attend class and participate in important class discussions, instructions, and information. If a student misses more than four days for TTH/MW classes or two days for night or summer classes, he/she will be dropped from the class. If a student is dropped from class, the last date of attendance will be recorded and sent to the Admissions Office. If a student is dropped, he/she may be responsible for paying back money received from grants or scholarships. Students also need to arrive to class on time. Students entering class ten minutes after the class has begun will be counted tardy. Three tardies will count as one absence.

Dual Credit students will adhere to the attendance policy as set forth by Linden-Kildare CISD AND Texarkana College.

Drop Date:

The official drop date for the course is Friday, Nov. 17, 2018, which is the last date for the student to drop this course with a W and/or the last date for the instructor to drop a student with a "W". It is the responsibility of the student to drop this course due to grades.

Make-up Policy:

If the student is absent, it is the student's responsibility to make arrangements to complete the assignments within one day of the absence; however, if a student misses on a day that an essay is due, the student is still responsible for turning the essay in on time. No late work will be accepted.

If a student is excused for a Linden-Kildare or Texarkana College extra-curricular activity, religious holiday, or military service, the student must receive prior approval from the Linden-Kildare High School principal, the Texarkana College Dean of Students and the instructor. Assignments must be completed prior to the excused absence.

The Linden-Kildare CISD testing policy will be followed for any student who misses an exam or needs to retest. Refer to the LK CISD Student Handbook for specifics on the policy.

Academic Dishonesty Policy: Academic Integrity Statement

Scholastic dishonesty, involving but not limited to cheating on a test, plagiarism, collusion, or falsification of records will make the student liable for disciplinary action after being investigated by the Linden-Kildare High School Principal or the Texarkana College Dean of Students. Proven violations of this nature will result in the student being dropped from the class with an "F".

This policy applies campus wide, including TC Testing Center, as well as off-campus classroom or lab sites, including dual credit campuses. This information can be found in the Student Handbook at <https://texarkanacollege.edu>.

Disability Act Statement:

Texarkana College complies with all provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act and makes reasonable accommodations upon request. For Texarkana College Students, please contact Larry Andrews at 903.823.3283, or go by the Recruitment, Advisement, and Retention Department located in the Administration building for personal assistance. Linden-Kildare High School students are to contact the counselor's office at the high school.

If a student has an accommodation letter from the Recruitment, Advisement, and Retention Department indicating that he or she has a disability that requires academic accommodations, the student should present the letter to the instructor so accommodations can be made. It is best to request these changes at the beginning if not before the start of class so there is ample time to make the accommodations.

Financial Aid:

Attention! Dropping this class may affect your funding in a negative way! You could owe money to the college and/or federal government. Please check with the Financial Aid office before making a decision.

Viewing Grades:

Grades are available via an online grade book- Engrade (www.engage.com/students) - Student grades are posted throughout the semester; Students will receive information about accessing grades by the third week of class.

Linden-Kildare Dual Credit students' grades are available by going to the school's webpage and accessing the student's account. For questions, contact the counselor's office.

TC Email:

Students should check their TC Email account on a regular basis to check for general information sent from campus or instructors. Also, when emailing the instructor, the students should use the TC Email account. Linden-Kildare students will receive information on email at a to-be-determined by the administration of LKCISD.

Class Policies: LK Dual Credit Students will follow the LKCISD district policy regarding cell phone use. TC Students: Cell phones and beepers must be turned off and not visible in the class unless an emergency situation exists. This situation must be discussed with the instructor prior to class. If a student is caught text-messaging in class, the student will be dropped from the class. If a student's cell phone rings in class, the student will receive a warning and will be dropped from class after the second offense.

Students should make arrangements with the instructor in advance if they need to leave class before dismissal. There will be a zero tolerance policy for any behavior that is disruptive of classroom learning. This includes ANY use of vulgar language or rude behavior toward instructor or any other student in the class.

Only plastic bottled drinks will be allowed in the classroom. No other food or drinks are permitted.

Linden-Kildare High School Dual Credit Students ONLY:

1. You must be in the room as the tardy bell is ringing or you will be counted tardy.
2. Respect others and keep your hands and feet to yourself.
3. All rules and policies in the Linden-Kildare CISD handbook will be strictly enforced.
4. No profanity in class.

Consequences:

1. First – Verbal warning
2. Second – Verbal warning and a parent contact
3. Third – Office referral

*A serious violation of any of the classroom or school policies will result in an immediate referral to the office negating the consequence steps.

NOTE: The above guidelines are subject to amendment by the instructor/Linden-Kildare CISD Administration/Texarkana College Administration at any point during the semester.
