Attendance Policy:

Texarkana College's absentee policy allows instructors to withdraw a student from a course due to excessive absences. If a student leaves and returns during class or leaves the class before the class is over, he/she may be considered absent. Three tardies constitute one absence. It is the student's responsibility to check the syllabus for each instructor's tardy policy.

In some workforce/vocational areas, such as nursing and cosmetology, certification requirements necessitate an absentee policy that is more stringent than the institutional policy. In these instances, the matter of certification takes precedence over local policies, since certification policies are established by the State of Texas.

Faculty members are not obligated to provide opportunities for students to make-up missed assignments and tests as a result of a student's absence from class. The institution is not required to take attendance with the exception of workforce/vocational areas, where certification requirements require taking attendance. However, experience demonstrates that regular attendance enhances academic success. As such, students are expected to attend each meeting of their registered courses.

A student should not stop attending a class without formally withdrawing from the course by the institutions published Last Day for Students to Drop. If a student stops attending class after the published Last Day for Students to Drop, the student may receive a grade of "F" in the class. The instructor will submit the last date of attendance for students receiving a grade of "F" or "W".

Withdrawal from a course(s) may affect a student's current or future financial aid eligibility. Students should consult the Financial Aid Office to learn both short and long term consequences of a withdrawal.

EXCUSED ABSENCES

A student's absence due to school trips and/or school business will not be counted against a student's allowable number of absences. Military duty and absences for Holy Days (FBD LEGAL) are covered in a separate section of the catalog and the student handbook. These are the only excused absences that are considered by Texarkana College.

Responsibility for work missed for any absence is placed on the student. Instructors are required to allow students to make up work missed if the absence is due to military duty* or religious holy days when students follow the correct notification procedures. Instructors are not required to allow students to make up work for absences due to other reasons. Make-up policies are listed in each individual instructor's syllabus.

Students interested in Health Occupations should check with the division chair prior to entering the program.*

ONLINE/HYBRID COURSE ABSENCES

Absence in an online course is defined as the lack of an active post or submission within the course including discussion board posts, written assignments, and tests. This standard will be used to determine all absentee issues, including but not limited to, 12th Day Census Reports, last date of attendance, and involuntary withdrawal from a course due to absences. All online students must complete an Enrollment Verification activity within the first week of class (activity depends upon the professor); otherwise the professor may drop the student for not having attended. Students must complete at least one activity in their online class per week. Each week in which a student does not complete an activity will be counted as an absence.

If a student is taking a hybrid course, and it does not meet during the first week of class, the student must also complete an Enrollment Verification activity within the first week of class; otherwise the student may be dropped for not having attended.

MAXIMUM ALLOWABLE ABSENCES

After official registration, the following number of unexcused absences will be the maximum allowable before a student may be dropped from the class. Mandated program certification requirements detailed for certain programs regarding the maximum allowable unexcused absences takes precedence over the following information.

Academic Classes

A COURSE THAT MEETS FOR THE FULL 16 WEEK SEMESTER
Class or Lab Meets:	An instructor may withdraw a student from a course if absences exceed:
Once a week (Night classes or Friday classes)	2
Twice a week (MW or TR classes)	4
Three times a week (MWF or TRF classes)	6
Four times a week (MTWR classes)	8
	Three tardies count as one absence

Make-up Policy:

If the student is absent, it is the student’s responsibility to make arrangements to complete the assignments within one week of the absence; however, if a student misses on a presentation day, the student will not be allowed to do the presentation unless arrangements are made with the instructor. If the student is allowed to give the presentation late, ten points will be deducted. If a student misses on test day, the test will be placed in the testing center, and the students will have one week to complete the test. If a student misses on a day that an essay is due, the student is still responsible for turning the essay in on time. Ten points will be deducted for every day the essay is late. If a student misses on a day when an in-class writing assignment is completed, the student must make arrangements with the instructor to complete the assignment at another time. The essay must be completed within a week of the due date. If a student is excused for a Texarkana College extra-curricular activity, religious holiday, or military service, the student must receive prior approval from the Dean of Students and the instructor. Assignments must be completed prior to the excused absence.

Academic Dishonesty Policy/Academic Integrity Statement:

Scholastic dishonesty, involving but not limited to cheating on a test, plagiarism, collusion, or falsification of records will make the student liable for disciplinary action after being investigated by the Dean of Students. Proven violations of this nature will result in the student being dropped from the class with an “F”. This policy applies campus wide, including TC Testing Center, as well as off-campus classroom or lab sites, including dual credit campuses. This information can be found in the Student Handbook at <https://texarkanacollege.edu>.

Disability Act Statement:

Texarkana College complies with all provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act and makes reasonable accommodations upon request. Please contact Larry Andrews at 903.823.3283, or go by his office located in the Palmer Memorial Library on the first floor for personal assistance.

If a student has an accommodation letter from the Director of Disabilities indicating that he or she has a disability that requires academic accommodations, the student should present the letter to the instructor so accommodations can be made. It is best to request these changes at the beginning if not before the start of class so there is ample time to make the accommodations.

Financial Aid:

Attention! Dropping this class may affect your funding in a negative way! You could owe money to the college and/or federal government. Please check with the Financial Aid office before making a decision.

Drop Date:

The official drop date for the course is Friday, Nov. 13, which is the last date for the student or instructor to drop this course with a W.

Viewing Grades:

Grades are available for viewing throughout the semester under the student’s MyTC portal.

TC Email:

Students should check their TC Email account on a regular basis to check for general information sent from campus or instructors. Also, when emailing the instructor, the students should use the TC Email account.

In-Class Essays:

Two in-class essays will be assigned during the semester (descriptive and summary). First, the chapter covering the format and requirements of the essays will be covered in class. Then, the student will be asked to complete a prewriting/planning and write the essay in-class on assigned days. Each essay has specific content and organization requirements; however, grammar and mechanics requirements are the same for all writing.

Submitting Final Out-of-Class Essays:

1. Typed and double-spaced using 14 point easy to read font. (Be sure to save a copy of all work.)
2. Turn in a final draft and a works cited page (when required).

4. Essays must be submitted to Turnitin.com. The instructor will provide instructions about how to access this site and submit papers during the semester.

Evaluation of Essays:

All assignments are graded using a rubric with points assigned for specific areas. Essays are graded for content, analysis, documentation, grammar, and mechanics. The Texarkana College point deduction scale is used for grammar and mechanics. (SEE BELOW) The content and development and grammar and mechanics grades are averaged for the final writing grade.

Essays will be marked for all errors and returned to the student within two weeks of when the essay is turned in. Reviewing the marked essay is essential for student success in the course. Writing can only improve if a student identifies and works on weak areas in his or her writing.

RESEARCH PAPERS

ATTENTION: The Research Papers must be turned in to receive credit for this course! No late research papers are accepted!

The Research Papers are assigned after the midterm point. Prior to that point students will receive instruction on MLA documentation, which is a requirement of the research paper. Weekly assignments on the paper will help assess student progress and ensure a student understands the components of the assignment. Each Research Paper Check is part of the overall Research Paper Final Grade. The research paper and the documents used to write the research paper must be submitted in TC Online. The research paper is evaluated in three parts: content and organization, research and documentation, and grammar and mechanics. NOTE: To conduct reliable research, students must use the TC Databases.

2. Click on the Library link at the top of the page.

TESTS

All tests are in multiple choice formats and will be scored immediately. The course proctor will be provided a password to allow student access to the online tests. Students will take the test on the designated day/week assigned. Students are not allowed to use books or notes on the tests. A pre and post test will be given in TC Online. The pre-test is given to provide the instructor with strengths and weaknesses of students regarding grammar, mechanics and sentence structure. The post-test will be given at the end of the semester. The Midterm Exam will cover the writing process. The final exam will cover MLA.

JOURNALS

Ten journal topics will be assigned during the semester. Journal topics are related to assigned readings in the textbook and/or writing prompts. Journals are completed in TC Online. Each journal must be one page to receive complete credit for the entry. Journals are meant to allow a student to express ideas, analyze, and critically think about the reading. Journals are graded for content, organization, and development, not grammar and mechanics.

WRITING PROCESS ASSIGNMENTS

Planning (Outline): For each essay, a student will be asked to turn in a thesis statement and a topic outline. Topic outline examples can be found in the textbook page 47. These steps in the writing process enable the student to gather ideas and organize ideas for writing. The instructor can then provide appropriate feedback for the student before the student begins writing a rough draft of the essay.

Rough Draft, Revising and Proofreading: For each essay, a student will be asked to submit a rough draft of the essay. Students will be provided an editing sheet and PowerPoint to assist in the revising and proofreading process. Students are advised to conduct the process on their own papers and a classmate's papers before submitting the final draft.

Research Paper Assignments: The Research Paper will be assigned during week ten of the course. Over the four weeks after the assignment, students will turn assignments as part of the research paper process. Specific Research Paper information will be provided at that time, but the assignments include: Assignment One – A topic proposal; Assignment Two- A Works Cited page; Assignment Three –Planning; Assignment Four- Rough Draft. Working through the steps in this order will help students succeed in writing a research paper that is well-researched, detailed, organized, and documented. If a student fails to complete these assignments by the due date, he or she loses points on the final research paper.

Class Policies:

Students in this course are held accountable to all policies and procedures outlined in the Texarkana College Student Catalog/Handbook, as well as the policies and procedures of the ISD.

NOTE: The above guidelines are subject to amendment by the instructor at any point during the semester. Students will be notified if any changes occur.
