CRIJ 1301 Introduction to Criminal Justice will introduce the student to the history, philosophy, and development of the criminal justice system; crime and criminal justice definitions. The nature and impact of crime, overview of the criminal justice system, law enforcement, prosecution and defense, court system, trial process and corrections.

Student Requirements for Completion of the Course and Due Dates

Instruction for this course will be accomplished through lecture, audio/video presentations, discussions and student participation for the face-to-face portion of the course. Students will complete all assignments including exams through the web-based course homepage. Students should read the text for the course prior to arrival in class, be attentive and take notes during lecture. Student participation is essential to the learning process, and students are expected to answer questions and engage in professional debate both in the classroom and web-based posted forum questions. See the listed class schedule for assignment and test due dates.

Students are required to submit an essay that will be submitted as an assignment through the course homepage; including an introduction, body and closing paragraphs in response to the Films on Demand video "The Brain and Violence: Secrets of your Mind". The essay should be approximately 1,000 words in length. The video can be accessed from the link on the course home page. However, if you are unable to open the link it can be accessed from Films on Demand at <http://digital.films.com> using the USER ID: texarkana and PASSWORD: texas, and searching for the video title. The essay will be due on Sunday at midnight of the week it is assigned. Please refer to Syllabus for date of assignment.

Students are required to complete a typed Informative Essay about a substantial contemporary criminal justice issue that will be submitted as an assignment through the course homepage. The essay should be four to six double spaced pages long and consist of at least five or six paragraphs including an introduction, body and closing paragraphs. The essay must contain information from a minimum of three cited sources including but not limited to peer-reviewed articles, books and websites. Do not use Wikipedia as a source. The essay will be graded on content and a demonstration of investigative effort in developing and expressing the factual information on the issue. The topic for the assignment must be approved by Friday, September 7, 2018, before starting the essay. You will be allowed to turn the essay in once for a preliminary review and response before receiving a final grade if it is turned in before the due date, however the final copy must be submitted for grading no later than Friday, October 05, 2018.

Students are required to submit five (5) brief responses to a Contemporary Criminal Justice issue during this semester through the course homepage. The response must be a minimum of a full paragraph in length and state both the issue being reported and the response of the student to the subject. Sources to consider using are newsprint, magazines, professional journals, television and/or radio news programs and internet news sites. A copy of the article must be submitted through attachment with the response or the article or news program must be cited. The five required responses must be completed in the first ten weeks of the semester so watch for due dates. As a bonus students may submit up to six (6) more responses, however under no circumstances will more than one required response be accepted per week.

You have the following possibilities for earning points:

(1) 14 Chapter tests (100 points each) -	1,400 total points
(2) "The Brain and Violence:" Video response essay	100 total points
(3) Informative Essay	100 total points

Attendance Policy

Success in this course depends on your regular attendance and participation in class and through completion of assignments on the course homepage. Attendance will be taken at the beginning of each class period and students will be dropped from the course due to excessive unexcused absences. A student may be dropped from this course after their second absence. Two tardies constitute one absence. Any student arriving more than fifteen minutes late for class or leaving early will be considered absent if prior approval has not been obtained by contacting me in my office by telephone at 903-823-3235 or email at stephen.gass@texarkanacollege.edu prior to the beginning of class. Approval will only be given in the case of unavoidable emergencies and you may be required to provide written proof. Failure to complete assignments for two weeks will result in being dropped from the course.

A student absent due to school trips and/or school business will not have the absence counted against the student's allowable number of absences. A student absent for military duty or for recognized Holy Days will not have the absence counted against the student's allowable number of absences in accordance with the Texarkana College Student Handbook. In these circumstances students will be expected to satisfactorily complete the assignment and/or examination within a reasonable time after the absence. It is the student's responsibility to notify the Instructor of their intended absence. The Texarkana College Student Handbook can be accessed for guidance at www.texarkanacollege.edu.

Do not stop attending class without formally withdrawing from the course by the institution's published Last Day to Drop for this semester. Texarkana College policy states that if a student does not attend class and does not withdraw from the class, the student will receive a grade of F in the class and this could affect your current or future financial aid eligibility. The last date you attend will be reflected on the final grade sheet resulting in the reimbursement of grant and scholarship funds.

Make-up Policy

Any assignment and/or examination that is made up due to an excused absence is expected to be satisfactorily completed by the following Thursday of the missed assignment date.

Class Conduct Policy

Cellular telephones and beepers must have the ringer turned off and not be visible in the class unless an emergency situation exists. This situation must be discussed with the instructor prior to class. If a student is caught text-messaging in class, the student may be dropped from the class. If a student's cell phone rings in class, the student will receive a warning and may be dropped from class after the second offense. Use of a cellphone in class is disruptive to the learning environment and a distraction to students in the classroom. Cellular telephone or electronic devices including smart watches should not be visible during any exam. In the case of an emergency family and friends can call the Texarkana College Police Department at 903-798-3330 and you will be contacted at the classroom and notified of the emergency. Use of laptops or tablets is not allowed in class as it is a distraction to those around you.

The classroom should be treated as a professional environment and distractions should be kept to a minimum. Students should make arrangements with the instructor in advance if they need to leave class before dismissal or arrive late for class. Students that have made arrangements to leave class early should sit as close to the door as possible. There will be a zero tolerance policy for any behavior that is disruptive to classroom learning. Professional debate is encouraged to enhance the learning environment however rude and vulgar behavior will not be tolerated. This includes ANY use of vulgar language or rude behavior toward instructor or any other student in the class. The field of Criminal Justice often involves topics that some might find controversial including but not limited to political and religious beliefs, and these topics will be discussed. Topics discussed in class are for an educational purpose and students must remain civil and respectful. Students asked to leave the class for improper behavior will be dropped from the course.

Academic Integrity Statement

Scholastic dishonesty, involving but not limited to cheating on a test, plagiarism, collusion, or falsification of records will make the student liable for disciplinary action after being investigated by the Dean of Students. Proven violations of this nature will result in the student being dropped from the class with an "F".

This policy applies campus wide, including TC Testing Center, as well as off-campus classroom or lab sites, including dual credit campuses. This information can be found in the Texarkana College Student Handbook at www.texarkanacollege.edu.

Disability Act Statement:

Texarkana College complies with all provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act and makes reasonable accommodations upon request. Please contact Larry Andrews at 903.823.3283, or go by the Recruitment, Advisement, and Retention Department located in the Administration building for personal assistance.

If you have an accommodation letter from their office indicating that you have a disability which requires academic accommodations, please present it to me so we can discuss the accommodations that you might need for this class. It is best to request these changes at the beginning if not before the start of class so there is ample time to make the accommodations..

Financial Aid:

Attention! Dropping this class may affect your funding in a negative way! You could owe money to the college and/or federal government. Please check with the Financial Aid office before making a decision.
