➤ Class Schedule:

Follow the Class Assignment Calendar that is handed out the first week of the semester. The Class Assignment Calendar is considered an official component of this syllabus. Note that any revisions to the assignment calendar will be announced in class. It is the responsibility of the student to be aware of these changes.

ABSENTEE POLICY

Texarkana College's absentee policy allows instructors to withdraw a student from a course due to excessive absences. If a student leaves and returns during class or leaves the class before the class is over, he/she may be considered absent. Three tardies constitute one absence. In this class, students arriving more than 15 minutes after the scheduled start time will be considered absent. Students leaving early will be considered absent. In some vocational areas, such as nursing and cosmetology, certification requirements necessitate an absentee policy that is more stringent than the institutional policy. In these instances, the matter of certification takes precedence over local policies, since certification policies are established by the State of Texas.

Faculty members are not obligated to provide opportunities for students to make-up missed assignments and tests as a result of a student's absence from class. The institution is not required to take attendance with the exception of certain workforce/vocational areas, such as nursing and cosmetology, where certification requirements require taking attendance. However, experience demonstrates that regular attendance enhances academic success. As such, students are expected to attend each meeting of their registered courses.

Do not stop attending a class without formally withdrawing from the course by the institution's published Last Day to Drop. If a student does not attend class and does not withdraw from the class, the student will receive a grade of F in the class. The published Last Day to Drop applies to students; an instructor may withdraw a student for excessive absences at any time during the semester.

Withdrawal from a course(s) may affect a student's current or future financial aid eligibility. Students should consult the Financial Aid Office to learn both short and long term consequences of a withdrawal.

EXCUSED ABSENCES

A student's absence due to school trips and/or school business will not be counted against a student's allowable number of absences. Military duty and absences for Holy Days (FBD LEGAL) are covered in a separate section of the catalog and the student handbook. These are the only types of absences that are considered excused by Texarkana College.

Responsibility for work missed for any absence is placed on the student. Instructors are required to allow students to make up work missed if the absence is due to military duty or religious holy days when students follow the correct notification procedures. Instructors are not required to allow students to make up work for absences due to other reasons. Make-up policies are listed in each individual instructor's syllabus.

ONLINE/HYBRID COURSE ABSENCES

Absence in an online course is defined as the lack of an active post or submission within the course including discussion board posts, written assignments, and tests. This standard will be used to determine all absentee issues, including but not limited to, 12th Day Census Reports, last date of attendance, and involuntary withdrawal from a course due to absences. All online students must complete an Enrollment Verification activity within the first week of class (activity depends upon the professor) or the professor may drop the student for not having attended. Students must complete at least one activity in their online class per week. Each week in which a student does not complete an activity will be counted as an absence. If a student is taking a hybrid course, and it does not meet during the first week of class, the student must also complete an Enrollment Verification activity within the first week of class or the student may be dropped for not having attended.

MAXIMUM ALLOWABLE ABSENCES

After official registration, the following number of unexcused absences will be the maximum allowable before a student may be dropped from the class. Mandated program certification requirements detailed for certain programs regarding the maximum allowable unexcused absences takes precedence over the following information.

Financial Aid:

Attention! Dropping this class may affect your funding in a negative way! You could owe money to the college and/or federal government. Please check with the Financial Aid office before making a decision.

Drop Date:

The official drop date for the course is Friday, April 15, which is the last date for the student to drop this course with a W. The instructor may drop the student at any time during the semester.

➤ Make-up Policy:

If a student misses on a day that an essay is due, the student is still responsible for turning the essay in on time. Major essays are due by the end of the day on the designated due date. After class time, students must hand in essays to the dropbox outside my office. Papers handed in elsewhere may be not be accepted. Twenty points will be deducted for every day the essay is late. With my permission, major tests or the in-class essay can be made up in the Testing Center. The Testing Center is located on the first floor of the TC Library. A student will have one week to make up the missed test. After one week, the student will receive a zero for the test. The student must speak to me about placing the test in the Testing Center and provide a legitimate excuse (at my discretion) for missing the test. Daily work (including reading quizzes) cannot be made up; however, the lowest daily grade will be dropped. If a student is excused for a Texarkana College extracurricular activity, religious holiday, or military service, the student must receive prior approval from the Dean of Students and the professor. Assignments must be completed prior to the excused absence.

➤ Note: *I do not accept assignments by e-mail, and I do not e-mail missed assignments to students. If you miss a class, check the Class Assignment Calendar or with a classmate to see what you missed.

➤ Academic Dishonesty Policy: Academic Integrity Statement

Scholastic dishonesty, involving but not limited to cheating on a test, plagiarism, collusion, or falsification of records will make the student liable for disciplinary action after being investigated by the Dean of Students. Proven violations of this nature will result in the student being dropped from the class with an "F".

This policy applies campus wide, including TC Testing Center, as well as off-campus classroom or lab sites, including dual credit campuses. This information can be found in the Student Handbook at <https://texarkanacollege.edu>.

➤ Disability Act Statement:

Texarkana College complies with all provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act and makes reasonable accommodations upon request. Please contact Larry Andrews at 903.823.3283, or go by the Recruitment, Advisement, and Retention Department located in the Administration building for personal assistance.

If a student has an accommodation letter from the Recruitment, Advisement, and Retention Department indicating that he or she has a disability that requires academic accommodations, the student should present the letter to the instructor so accommodations can be made. It is best to request these changes at the beginning if not before the start of class so there is ample time to make the accommodations.

➤ Major Essays:

All major essays must have a TYPED and double-spaced rough draft unless otherwise specified in class. Rough drafts must be completed on the day assigned. On this day, each student will edit and revise essays. Each student must bring a copy of his/her rough draft in order to receive daily work points for that day. Students who do not come to class with a rough draft ready on the due date may be asked to leave class and will receive an absence for that day. Students must turn in all major papers in order to receive a passing grade in the class. Failure to turn in any one of the three essays will result in a failing grade for the course.

Additional requirements for these papers include:

- ✓ All papers must be typed and double-spaced using 12-point Times New Roman in black ink. Papers that are not double-spaced will not be accepted for grading. The second floor of the Humanities Building has a computer lab available. Computers are available in the library. Be sure to save all work! Printing kiosks are available around campus.
- ✓ Plan ahead! Computer emergencies can and do happen, but they will not be an excuse for a late paper.

- ✓ Each essay must have a cover page with the following information centered:
 - Title of Paper

Remember, it is not due until the end of the day on the date the assignment is due. The end of the day means that when I arrive at my office the following day, the paper must be in my mailbox or it is considered late. 20 points will be deducted for each day the paper is late.
