Attendance/Absentee/Tardy Policy:

Texarkana College's policy allows Professors to withdraw a student from a course due to excessive absences. For this class, a student will be considered Tardy/Late after the start of class until fifteen (15) minutes after class begins. Three tardies will count as one absence. The student will be considered absent fifteen (15) minutes after the designated start time of class. If a student leaves and returns during class or leaves the class before the class is over, he/she may be considered absent. A student will be dropped from the course if absences exceed four (4) absences as stated by college policy.

Faculty members are not obligated to provide opportunities for students to make-up missed assignments and tests as a result of a student's absence from class. The college institution is required to take attendance and experience demonstrates that regular attendance enhances academic success. As such, students are expected to attend each meeting of their registered courses.

All students will sign-in each class day and a record will be kept for each student's attendance during the semester. You are responsible for your own attendance. Also, each student is required to have assignments completed the day that the assignments are due. The Professor reserves the right to drop students after (a) excessive absences, and/or (b) one or more Unit Exams not completed. However, dropping a class that you are failing or in danger of failing is your responsibility.

A student should not stop attending a class without formally withdrawing from the course by the institutions published Last Day for Students to Drop. If a student stops attending class after the published Last Day for Students to Drop, the student may receive a grade of "F" in the class. The Professor will submit the last date of attendance for students receiving a grade of "F" or "W". The last day to drop a course is NOVEMBER 18.

Withdrawal from a course(s) may affect a student's current or future financial aid eligibility. Students should consult the Financial Aid Office to learn both short and long term consequences of a withdrawal.

Excused Absences Policy:

A student's absence due to school trips and/or school business will not be counted against a student's allowable number of absences. Military duty and absences for Holy Days (FBD LEGAL) are covered in a separate section of the catalog and the student handbook.

These are the only excused absences that are considered by Texarkana College. Responsibility for work missed for any absence is placed on the student. Professors are required to allow students to make up work missed if the absence is due to military duty or religious holy days when students follow the correct notification procedures. Professors are not required to allow students to make up work for absences due to other reasons. Make-up policies are listed in each individual Professor's syllabus.

Academic Dishonesty Policy

Scholastic dishonesty, involving but not limited to cheating on a test, plagiarism, collusion, or falsification of records will make the student liable for disciplinary action after being investigated by the Dean of Students. Proven violations of this nature will result in the student being dropped from the class with an "F".

This policy applies campus wide, including TC Testing Center, as well as off-campus classroom or lab sites, including dual credit campuses. This information can be found in the Student Handbook at

Disability Act Statement:

Texarkana College complies with all provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act and makes reasonable accommodations upon request. Please contact Larry Andrews at 903.823.3283, or go by the Recruitment, Advisement, and Retention Department located in the Administration building for personal assistance.

If you have an accommodation letter from their office indicating that you have a disability which requires academic accommodations, please present it to me so we can discuss the accommodations that you might need for this class. It is best to request these changes at the beginning if not before the start of class so there is ample time to make the accommodations.

Financial Aid:

Attention! Dropping this class may affect your funding in a negative way! You could owe money to the college and/or federal government. Please check with the Financial Aid office before making a decision.

Reminder Class Policies:

Cell phones and beepers must be turned off and not visible in the class unless an emergency situation exists. This situation must be discussed with the Professor prior to class. If a student is caught text-messaging in class, the student will be dropped from the class. If a student's cell phone rings in class, the student will receive a warning and will be dropped from the class after the second offense.

Students should make arrangements with the Professor in advance if they need to leave class before dismissal. There will be a zero tolerance policy for any behavior that is disruptive of classroom learning. This includes ANY use of vulgar language or RUDE BEHAVIOR toward Professor or any other student in the class.

Please Note:

This course syllabus is subject to revision. Any changes to this syllabus will be announced in class.

TESTS: Major tests will cover chapters indicated, Study Questions, class notes, chapter terms, and videos. Test items include multiple-choice questions, maps, identification (I.D.'s), and a few short-answer completion questions. You will need five Scan Tron 882 from the College Bookstore. There will be four major tests plus the Final Exam for a total of five major tests. The Study Questions (outlines) will indicate important information in each chapter. These will be covered by test regardless of whether they have been discussed in class.

TAKE-HOME TESTS:

There will be five Take-Home Tests during the semester (20 points each; total of 100 points). Late Take-Home Tests will only be accepted until the beginning of the next class period, with points being deducted for late work. If you foresee an absence, turn the Take-Home Test in early.

HISTORY DISCUSSION/PARTICIPATION:

Discussion/Participation points will include looking up some history terms and Study Questions; working on a political survey and a Primary Source review project as course requirements this semester. The Primary Source review project is worth approximately 160 points and the other participation items are worth approximately 40 points; total of 160 points for Discussion/Participation.

Also included as part of classroom Discussion/Participation will be extra credit points which students can earn based on participation (answering and asking questions), good attendance, good attitude, and promptness at the end of the semester.

DISCIPLINARY INFRACTIONS:

Each faculty member is his/her own disciplinarian in the classroom. Any student may be subject to being relocated to another desk, or being dropped from this class for disciplinary infractions. This includes such items as unnecessary talking, tardiness, cheating on tests, sleeping in class and during videos, personality and attitude problems which disrupts teaching with detrimental effect upon other students and the class, etc.. Behavior that interferes with the class will be dealt with and the student engaging in the behavior will be asked to leave the class.

Also, no food or drinks in the classroom.

CONFERENCES:

If you find that you are having difficulty with the course, please schedule a conference with the Professor. Do this before it is too late and not toward the end of the semester. Remember the Professor is here to advise and assist you, not to consign you to eternal torment.

EXTRA POINTS:

Attendance- Good attendance indicates a responsible student and can help you at the end of the semester.

Participation- You may earn some extra points by participation in additional and constructive class discussions such as answering and asking questions on the subject/course, having a good attitude, etc..

One or two book article reviews approved by the Professor. See additional page. (5 points each; total of 10 points for the article reviews).

ELECTRONIC DEVICE POLICY:

11

Texarkana College policy states that no cell phones should be in sight or on in the classroom; all phones and other electronic devices must be turned off and put away at all times in the classroom. If you have a cell phone out in the classroom (even texting under your desktop), you will be asked to leave and you will be dropped from the class. If you have a specific emergency, see the Professor before class to ask for a waiver of this policy. Otherwise, this is your warning. No laptops unless the Professor gives you individual permission.

CLASSROOM COURTESY:

Personal courtesy is a part of this classroom. That means that listening and responding will be consistently and courteously practiced. No student will engage in behavior that suggests a lack of respect for anyone in the class. Behavior that interferes with another student's learning will not be tolerated.

EMAIL:

Texarkana College uses a Texarkana College created and maintained email account for every student. This email account is used for official correspondence, communication to and from faculty and staff, and may be the only email recognized by faculty, staff, and administrators.

COLLEGE COURSE EXPECTATIONS:

Note: You are invited to come by my office during my office hours

- if you are having trouble with the class material;
- if you need additional explanation of concepts;
- if you want an explanation for a grade received;
- if you have a complaint or suggestion; or
- if you would like to discuss your project and findings.

CLASSROOM NORMS: I know this is hard to believe, but some students enter college without knowing what is expected of them in the classroom. However, there are certain behavior expectations placed on you when you enroll in college. These are:

DO'S:

- Do show up on-time
- Do refrain from packing up before class is dismissed
- Do come to class prepared
- Do show respect for fellow classmates and their ideas.
- Do stay for the whole class period
- Do participate in discussions

DON'TS:

- Don't talk among yourselves during class.
- Don't sleep during class.
- Don't do work for other classes in this class.
- Don't pop gum in class.
- Don't bring children to class.
- Don't read other books during class.
- Don't use profanity in class.
- Don't use tobacco products in class.

All cell phones and other electronic devices must be turned off and put away at all times in the classroom.

Cheating on tests or any other assignments will result in the student being dropped from the course with a failing grade.
