Student Learning Outcomes for the Course

CRIJ 2328 Police Systems and Practices is a study of the Law Enforcement profession; organization of law enforcement systems; the police role; police discretion; ethics; police-community interaction; and current and future issues.

Student Requirements for Completion of the Course and Due Dates

Instruction for this course will be accomplished through independent study to include: lecture, audio/video presentations, discussions and student participation. Assignments will be presented and completed through both web-based and campus assignments. Students should read the text for the course prior to answering discussion questions and taking exams. Student participation is essential to the learning process, and students are expected to answer questions and engage in professional debate. See the listed class schedule for assignment and test due dates. Students are required to have Scantron sheets and #2 pencils for tests and make arrangements to take the tests each week.

Students are required to submit a hand-written essay including an introduction, body and conclusion in response to the Films on Demand video "Crime in the Cities: Public Safety at Risk". The video can be accessed from the link on the course home page. However, if you are unable to open the link it can be accessed from Films on Demand at <http://digital.films.com> using the USER ID: texarkana and PASSWORD: texas, and searching for the video title. The essay will be due on Monday of the following week in class.

Students are required to submit five (5) brief responses to a Contemporary Criminal Justice issue during this semester. The response must state the issue being reported and the response of the student to the subject. Sources to consider using are newsprint, magazines, professional journals, television and/or radio news programs and internet news sites. A copy of the article must be submitted through attachment with the response or the article or news program must be cited. As a bonus students may submit up to six (6) more responses, however under no circumstances will more than one response be accepted per week.

You have the following possibilities for earning points:

- (1) 14 Chapter tests (100 points each) - 1,400 total points
 - (2) Crime in the Cities video response 100 total points
 - (3) 5 Contemporary Issues response (20 points each) - 100 total points
 - (4) Final Exam (100 points) - 100 total points
- 1,700 total points

Bonus

Up to six Contemporary Issues response (10 points each)

Attendance Policy

Success in this course depends on your regular participation in class through the course homepage and attending scheduled meetings on campus to discuss progress in the course. Attendance will be determined through weekly participation in discussion questions and exams. A student will be dropped from the course due to excessive unexcused absences. A student may be dropped from this course after their third absence. If you are expecting to be unable to perform your assignment and exam for a week you should obtain prior approval by contacting me in my office by telephone at 903-823-3235 or email at stephen.gass@texarkanacollege.edu prior to the beginning of the week. Approval will only be given in the case of unavoidable emergencies and you may be required to provide written proof.

A student absent due to school trips and/or school business will not have the absence counted against the student's allowable number of absences. A student absent for military duty or for recognized Holy Days will not have the absence counted against the student's allowable number of absences in accordance with the Texarkana College Student Handbook. In these circumstances students will be expected to satisfactorily complete the assignment and/or examination within a reasonable time after the absence. It is the student's responsibility to notify the Instructor of their intended absence. The Texarkana College Student Handbook can be accessed for guidance at www.texarkanacollege.edu.

Do not stop attending class without formally withdrawing from the course by the institution's published Last Day to Drop for this semester. Texarkana College policy states that if a student does not attend class and does not withdraw from the class, the student will receive a grade of F in the class and this could affect your current or future financial aid eligibility. The last date you attend will be reflected on the final grade sheet resulting in the reimbursement of grant and scholarship funds.

Make-up Policy

Any assignment and/or examination that is made up due to an excused absence is expected to be satisfactorily completed by the following Thursday of the missed assignment date.

Cellular Telephone/electronic devices

Cellular telephone or electronic device use in the classroom for purposes other than instructional use is prohibited to limit distraction in the classroom. If there is an emergency that requires the presence of a cellular telephone, you are required to discuss this with me before class so arrangements can be made to limit the distraction. A student may be dropped from the course for use of a device after one warning for improper use of a cellular telephone or electronic device.

Academic Integrity Statement

Scholastic dishonesty, involving but not limited to cheating on a test, plagiarism, collusion, or falsification of records will make the student liable for disciplinary action after being investigated by the Dean of Students. Proven violations of this nature will result in the student being dropped from the class with an "F".

This policy applies campus wide, including TC Testing Center, as well as off-campus classroom or lab sites, including dual credit campuses. This information can be found in the Texarkana College Student Handbook at www.texarkanacollege.edu.

Disability Act Statement:

Texarkana College complies with all provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act and makes reasonable accommodations upon request. Please contact Larry Andrews at 903.823.3283, or go by the Recruitment, Advisement, and Retention Department located in the Administration building for personal assistance.

If you have an accommodation letter from their office indicating that you have a disability which requires academic accommodations, please present it to me so we can discuss the accommodations that you might need for this class. It is best to request these changes at the beginning if not before the start of class so there is ample time to make the accommodations..

Financial Aid:

Attention! Dropping this class may affect your funding in a negative way! You could owe money to the college and/or federal government. Please check with the Financial Aid office before making a decision.
