ACADEMIC DISHONESTY POLICY:

Scholastic dishonesty, involving but not limited to cheating on a test, plagiarism, collusion or falsification of records will make the student liable for disciplinary action after being investigated by the Dean of Students. Proven violations of this nature will result in the student being dropped from the class with an “F”. This policy applies campus-wide, including the TC Testing Center, as well as off-campus classroom or lab sites. Students are furnished this information during Freshman Orientation with the TC Student Handbook.

DISABILITY ACT STATEMENT:

Texarkana College complies with all the provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act and makes reasonable accommodations upon request. Please contact Tonja Blase at 903-823-3349, or go by the Retention/Special Needs Department located in the Academic Commons building for personal assistance.

If you have an accommodation letter from their office indicating that you have a disability that requires academic accommodations, please present it to me so we can discuss the accommodations that you might need for this class. It is best to request these changes at the beginning of the semester if not before the start of class so there is ample time to make the accommodations.

BASIC NEEDS SECURITY:

Any student who has difficulty affording groceries or accessing enough food to eat every day, or who lacks a safe and stable place to live and believes this may affect their performance in this course or ability to remain in school, is urged to contact Tonja Blasé, Director of Student Retention, at 903-823-3349 for support. Furthermore, please notify me if you are comfortable in doing so. This will enable them to provide any resources that they may possess.

FINANCIAL AID:

Dropping this class may affect your funding in a negative way! You could owe money to the college and/or federal government. Please check with the Financial Aid office before making a decision.

E-MAIL STATEMENT:

Texarkana College uses a Texarkana College created and maintained email account for every student. This email account is used for official correspondence, communication to and from faculty and staff, and may be the only email recognized by faculty, staff, and administrators. Student emails are firstinitial.lastname and last four digits of student ID#. Example: John Student whose student ID # is 45678 has the email address of j.student5678@my.texarkanacollege.edu.

I reserve the right to modify this syllabus as circumstances warrant. Advanced notice will be given to each student before any modifications are made.
